Please read this Cookies Policy (hereinafter referred to as "Policy") carefully for more details about the cookies, their use and their settings.

2. What Are Cookies and Web Beacons?

Cookies are small text files placed on your device, such as in a computer memory, mobile phone or other device, when you visit a website. Cookies are useful because they allow a website to recognize your visit, collect information about your use of that website and to provide you with a more personalized web experience. Cookies contain information that is transferred to your device's hard drive (or random access memory in the case of session cookies) and some cookies may collect personal data about you. Cookies are used to maintain websites and obtain statistics.

Web beacons are small graphic images (also known as "Pixel Tags" or "Clear GIFs") placed on our websites, and in informational emails, that are usually used in combination with cookies to identify users and monitor the behavior of the users visiting the web site.

3. Why Do We Use Cookies?

We use cookies on our website to help us provide you with a better experience.

- to recognize your computer when you visit our website;
- to improve the website’s usability;
- to track how you move around our website;
- to analyze the use of our website.

4. How Do We Use Cookies?

The information collected through these cookies are used to analyze how you use our web-site, to make our service more effective and functional. Cookies are used to simplify and improve your browsing experience and serve you more relevant advertisement ads matched your searches.

We don’t use cookies to track people’s Internet usage after leaving our sites and we don’t store personal information in them others could read and understand. We will not sell or distribute cookie information without your prior consent.

5. What Types of Cookies We Use?

Our website uses various types of cookies. Going to the site, the user may accidentally receive cookies from other sites or web servers that represent so-called "third-party" cookies: Google, Google Analytics and others.

Please note that we cannot influence the cookies used by these services as well as we are not responsible for any actions or policies of third parties.

We use the following Cookies files on our web-site:

6. How Long Do Cookies Last?

The length of time a cookie will stay on your computer depends on whether it is a "persistent" or "session" cookie. Session cookies will only stay on your device until you stop browsing. Persistent cookies stay on your computer until they expire or are deleted.

We use Session cookies to assign a unique identification number for your computer every time you visit our site. Session cookies are deleted after closing the browser. They are used to maintain the functionality of our site and to analyze your work on the site.

When it is permissible, we use persistent cookies that are not deleted immediately after closing the web browser but are saved on the device for a certain period of time or until you delete them. Every time you visit our site, our web server recognizes persistent cookies-files stored in your device. Using them we assign to your device a unique identifier and create a database of your actions and preferences.

7. How Do I Reject and Delete Cookies?

You can choose to reject or block all cookies set by virtue of your visit to our website. You can change your preferences for our websites and/or the websites of any third party suppliers by changing your browser settings. Please note that most browsers automatically accept cookies. Therefore, if you do not wish cookies to be used, you may need to actively delete or block the cookies. If you reject the use of cookies, you will still be able to visit our websites but some of the functions may not work correctly. By using our website without deleting or rejecting some or all cookies, you agree that we can place those cookies that you have not deleted or rejected on your device.
